Pew Repurposing

As you know, when we discussed changing the seating in the sanctuary from pews to church seating, Jim had agreed to repurpose the pews into other furniture. Jim has been hard at work setting up the wood shop at the church and producing prototypes of various tables. You can see these on display in the hall downstairs. If you are interested in ordering one of these, please speak to Jim. Also, Jim is at the point where he could use some help; if you are interested in helping Jim in the shop, please speak to him personally.
