Prayer on Entering the House of the LORD

O God, through Your Son Jesus, You paid a ransom with His precious blood to save us from an empty life, cleansing us from our sins that we may be born again to a life that lasts for eternity. We thank You and praise You in Jesus' name. Amen.

FMCiC Week of Prayer and Fasting – Jan. 25th to Feb. 1st

This January, we are inviting all our churches to join us for our Week of Prayer and Fasting on the theme “Unleashing Holy Freedom.” Rooted in our Wesleyan heritage, this week calls us back to Methodism’s core conviction: God’s grace not only forgives sin but frees us from its power, forming us in holy love through the sanctifying work of the Spirit. From Sunday, January 25 (opening with a Zoom session at 7:00 pm EST) to Friday, January 30, join us daily at noon EST for Prayer for Revival and each evening at 7:00 pm EST on Zoom for Scripture-guided teaching, testimony, and reflection on holiness, mission, listening to God, and confession. The week will culminate in an in-person worship and prayer gathering on Sunday, February 1, at Wesley Chapel at 7:00 pm which will also be streamed live.

Update on Sri Lanka and Bishop's Relief Fund

Devastating flooding, from Cyclone Ditwah, had a severe impact on our brothers and sisters in Sri Lanka. The Sri Lanka FMC is a Mission District of the FMCiC and God has moved in big ways. Our Free Methodist family responded generously to help; various pastors (including Rev. Pramila) were able to use the money sent from the Bishop's Relief Fund to purchase much needed food and medication to distribute to their congregation members as well as to non-believers in their community. You can continue to contribute to the bishop's Relief Fund for Sri Lanka through your offering envelope or online e-transfer.
