Today is International Women's Day and the FMCiC is being intentional about recognizing the significant contributions women make to the local church and faith formation. We here at Queensway wanted to recognize this day by including women in key parts of our worship service. Here's what the FMCiC position on women in leadership says: "The Free Methodist Church in Canada's position on women in leadership (a fully egalitarian posture), whilst not new, is a counter-cultural position within western evangelical Christianity. Many congregants in our community churches come from different backgrounds and, in the age of the internet, are accustomed to learning and growing in their faith from sources outside our egalitarian teaching, in particular online teaching and social media.".
